

Thayer Pond

Wildlife Management Area

Rutland
131 Acres

SIZE:	131 acres
ACCESS:	Informal access along abandoned railroad right-of-way off Route 56.
HABITAT:	Shallow impoundment of Mill Brook with some upland along the upper reach of the brook.
WATER:	Thayer Pond is shallow and heavily vegetated with lily pads and floating mats.
WILDLIFE:	Waterfowl, wading birds and aquatic mammals such as beaver, muskrat and river otter are common.
SPECIAL REGULATIONS:	